

Telegraph magazine

20 September 2003

Telegraph fashion

Autumn/Winter 2003 fashion special in association with RIVER ISLAND

Follow the leaders

What the editors of French Vogue, Teen Vogue and Pop magazines will be wearing this season

Second coming

How Yves Saint Laurent's protege is reviving the house of Lanvin

More than just a cover-up

The feminine, the tailored, the sexy: the best winter coats

Plus the four key looks and how to find them on the high street

The age of elegance

Fashion recovers its poise. By Vicki Woods

Window of opportunity Innovation and style combine at 100% Design, London's exhibition

FROM LEFT Salvatore table £294, James Burleigh (020-7328 2824; stand B78); Escape pierced bowls £17.50 each, Wedgwood (01782-204141; L89). Love seat rocker £1,900, Afroditi Krassa (020-7627 3463; A112). Jungle rug £517/m², Veedon Fleece (01483-575758; D3). Donkey 3 storage unit £365, Shin and Tomoko Azumi from

Isokon Plus (020-8994 0636; F110); 101 turquoise spiral saucer £15, Wedgwood, as before; wineglass £18.50, CzechMania (020-7833 5777; D110); rubber coasters, £24.95 for set of six, Stella Corral from Vessel (020-7727 8001; H52). Mind the Gap chair £950, Stephen Richards (07946-464701; B111). Butterfly table £690, Alexander